

Monitoring Global Progress

Where: Water Dome, Room 3 and 4 (300 people)

When: Tuesday September 3rd, 2002

Time: 2:00pm to 4:30pm

Theme: part of day «Water and Globalization» overseen by Mike Muller.

Moderator: Mr. Pradeep Aggarwal (IAEA)

United Nations Global Efforts (40 minutes)

Mr. Nitin Desai (10 minutes)

Secretary General for the WSSD

- Importance of Water to Sustainable Development and UN support of efforts of member states in monitoring and assessment

Mr. Roberto Lenton and/or Mr. Albert Wright (10 minutes)

Head of Task Force on Monitoring Millennium Targets

- Monitoring global progress against targets and the role of UN system, WWAP and national governments.

National efforts to strengthen monitoring and reporting of progress in water (50 minutes)

H.E. Ms. Maria Mutagamba (10 minutes)

Minister of State for Water Uganda

- Promoting case studies and evolving partnerships with other Member States. Discussion of the purpose of the programme to strengthen the efforts of Member States to assess, monitor and report progress in water.

Hon. Rukman Senanayake (10 minutes)

Minister of Environment and Natural Resource, Sri Lanka

Hon. Gamini Jayawickrama Perera

Minister of Irrigation and Water Management

- Contribution to WWAP and stimulus of the program to strengthen their efforts in monitoring and assessing (benefits, challenges, etc.)

(to be confirmed) (10 minutes)

Minister Thailand

(to be confirmed) (10 minutes)

Minister Bolivia or Peru

(to be confirmed) (10 minutes)

European country

- European efforts in monitoring and assessing

General Discussion Period (30-60 minutes)

General Discussion between Stakeholders, speakers, case study representative and special guests

Mr. Koichiro Matsuura (10 minutes)

Director General UNESCO