^{*/} The cover page to the document INFCIRC/167/Add.13, in which the text of the Co-operative Agreement for Research, Development and Training Related to Nuclear Science and Technology, 1987 (the 1987 RCA) was reproduced, erroneously described the text in question as the text of the "Third Agreement to Extend the Regional Co-operative Agreement for Research, Development and Training Related to Nuclear Science and Technology, 1972". In this modified version of the cover page, necessitated by the error in question, the opportunity has been taken also to update the information concerning notifications of acceptance given in the earlier version.
