

CONTENTS

4 Chernobyl's Living Legacy

Fred Mettler, a leading medical authority, revisits Chernobyl's health picture from personal and professional perspectives.

7 In the Dark

Ukrainian teacher and mother, Lily Poberezhska, recalls the moments, days and years following the Chernobyl accident.

9 Tell it Like it Is 7 Lessons from TMI

Crisis communicator Peter Sandman looks back on the USA's 1979 Three Mile Island accident.

14 Between Two Devils

Nobel Laureate Burton Richter weighs in on the promise and problems of nuclear energy.

18 Nuclear Safety

Impressive and Worrisome Trends
Chairman of the International Nuclear Safety Group, Richard Meserve, takes a look at the safety record of nuclear power and sees no room for complacency.

Sidebar

❖ Keeping the Lights On

As the nuclear workforce ages, experience in the Czech Republic suggests a brighter future cannot be taken for granted.

THE IAEA'S NOBEL PEACE PRIZE: SOLEMNITY AND CELEBRATION

22 A World Within Our Grasp

In his Nobel Lecture, Mohamed ElBaradei reminds the world that much still needs to be done to combat the misuse of nuclear energy while securing its power for the benefit of all.

26 Message in a Medal

The IAEA Bulletin speaks with Prof. Ole Danbolt Mjøl, Chairman of the Nobel Prize Committee, to get a rare glimpse behind the closed doors of the Nobel Foundation.

28 A Nobel House

The IAEA has strong ties with other Nobel Laureates who have graced—and helped build—its house.

30 Praise for the Prize

As the Nobel Peace Prize was announced, praise and hopes were heard from global leaders.

32 Work in Progress—Q&A with Mohamed ElBaradei

CNN's Jonathan Mann poses questions ranging from Iraq to Iran.

Sidebar

❖ Prize Money

Nobel benefits live through funding of cancer and nutrition fellowships in the developing world.

36 Photo Essay

Snapshots from Behind the Scenes

It was “glitz and glam”, solemnity and celebration, voices of protest and messages of peace...these photos take you in front, and behind, the scenes at the 2005 Nobel Peace Prize festivities in Oslo, Norway.

SPECIAL REPORT: RADIATION PROTECTION

41 Plus 90 and Counting

Countries Rise to the Challenge of Radiation Safety

The IAEA Bulletin takes a closer look at one of the Agency's most ambitious projects—a strategic effort to upgrade national infrastructures for radiation protection.

42 Strategies for Nuclear Safety

IAEA Deputy Directors Ana María Cetto and Tomihiro Taniguchi point to how the IAEA is strengthening the nuclear safety regime.

44 A Solid Foundation

Finding Ways to Sustain Radiation Protection

45 Enhancing Radiation Protection

On the Frontier

❖ Lithuania's Model of Success

49 Education & Training

Key to Sustainable Infrastructure

50 Thematic Safety Areas

Foundations for Radiation Protection

❶ Legislation & Regulation:

Law & Order for Nuclear Technology

On the Frontier

❖ Botswana: Collaboration Builds Trust

❷ Occupational Exposure Control:
Protection for Workers

❸ Medical Exposure Control:

The Delicate Balance Behind Patient Health and Safety

On the Frontier

❖ Yemen: New capacities will help save lives

❹ Public and Environmental Exposure Control: Preventative Measures Provide Protection

❺ Emergency Preparedness & Response: Ready & Able

On the Frontier

❖ Nigeria: Early Preparedness Facilitates Crisis Management

61 Reducing the Risk from Radioactive Sources

The IAEA's Carolyn MacKenzie explains how one initiative is supporting national communication efforts for the management of radioactive sealed sources.

Sidebar

❖ Lessons Learned the Hard Way

64 Photo Contest

A Better, Safer World

The IAEA Division of Public Information challenged the Vienna international community to capture on film a better, safer world. The photos are defiant and ebullient, energetic and quiet but above all — hopeful.