

Tours and Activities

Dress rehearsal at the Golden Hall of the Musikverein in Vienna

Friday, 17 June 2011.

The Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra will be conducted by world famous maestro Zubin Mehta. Daniel Barenboim will be playing Beethoven's 3rd Piano Concerto in c-Minor op 37. We shall also hear a symphony by Igor Strawinsky and "Don Quixote op. 35" by Richard Strauss. Just like last time, we shall meet at the coffee-shop of the Imperial Hotel (Kärntner Ring 16, 1010 Wien) for a chat from 2 o'clock and walk over to the Musikverein across the street as a group before 3:15. Please book and pay at the same time for this event in the UNWG office/General Meetings/Welcoming Coffees. Ticket price: 33 Euro per ticket. First come first served basis.

For more information please contact Elisabeth Uriu euriu@yahoo.com

GENERAL PROBE OPERN BALL

February 15, 2012

Price Euros 30

Last date: 28th, July 2011

The Vienna Opera Ball is an annual Austrian society event which takes place in the Vienna "Stadt Oper". Almost overnight, the auditorium of the Opera is turned into a large ballroom. On the eve of the event, the rows of seats are removed from the stalls, and a new floor, level with a stage, is built. Special performances including stars of the "Stadt Oper" and Ballet Company will be presented. Pay in the office as only 30 tickets are available. We will collect the tickets from the Opera House one week before the event.

Kalpana: 069918127784

Kalpana.dash@gmail.com