

Declarations/reservations and objections theretoArmenia, Republic of*ratified 22 May 2013

Objection to the declaration of Azerbaijan received on 11 May 2016:

"1. The Government of the Republic of Armenia objects to the declaration made by the Republic of Azerbaijan on the occasion of its ratification of the Amendment to the Convention on the Physical Protection of Nuclear Material and considers it incompatible with the object and purpose of the Convention.

2. The Government of the Republic of Armenia firmly rejects all allegations contained in the declaration and states that the reservations of the Azerbaijani side have nothing to do with nuclear security related issues, but are entirely of political nature. Once again Azerbaijan resorted to highly destructive step of exploiting international fora for disseminating groundless and false accusations against Armenia in a sheer defiance to the purposes and objectives of the Convention and blatant disrespect to its member states. This irresponsible attitude is directed at shifting the international attention from the large-scale aggressive military actions unleashed by Azerbaijan against Nagorno-Karabakh and the gross violations of human rights and humanitarian law committed by Azerbaijan, including against the civilian population of Nagorno-Karabakh.

3. Given the Azerbaijani refusal to cooperate with Armenia, as was communicated through the declaration attached to its instrument of ratification, and taking into consideration the abovementioned, the Government of Armenia declares, that the provisions of the Convention on the Physical Protection of Nuclear Material and the Amendment to the Convention on the Physical Protection of Nuclear Material shall not be applied by the Republic of Armenia in respect of the Republic of Azerbaijan."

Azerbaijan, Republic ofratified 31 Mar 2016

Upon ratification:

"1. The Republic of Azerbaijan declares that the provisions of the Convention on the Physical Protection of Nuclear Material and the Amendment to the Convention on the Physical Protection of Nuclear Material shall not be applied by the Republic of Azerbaijan in respect of the Republic of Armenia.

2. The Republic of Azerbaijan declares that it is unable to guarantee the implementation of the provisions of the Convention on the Physical Protection of Nuclear Material and the Amendment to the Convention on the Physical Protection of Nuclear Material in its territories occupied by the Republic of Armenia (the Nagorno-Karabakh region of the Republic of Azerbaijan and its seven districts surrounding that region), until the liberation of those territories from the occupation and complete elimination of the consequences of that occupation (the schematic map of the occupied territories of the Republic of Azerbaijan is enclosed).

3. The Republic of Azerbaijan reserves the right to amend or revoke at any time the provisions of Paragraph 1 and Paragraph 2 of the present Declaration, and other Parties shall be notified in writing of any such amendments or revocation."

Belgium, Kingdom ofratified 22 Jan 2013

Upon ratification:

"Referring to Article 2A of the protocol to amend the Convention on the Physical Protection of Nuclear Material, the Belgian Government declares that it interprets the fundamental principles of physical protection of nuclear material and nuclear facilities contained in paragraph 3 of Article 2A as guidelines which the State Party must apply in implementing the obligations of paragraphs 1 and 2 of Article 2A. Consequently, the Belgian Government considers that the fundamental principles of physical protection of nuclear material and nuclear facilities do not, in themselves, constitute legal obligations."

Pakistan, Islamic Republic ofratified 24 Mar 2016

Upon ratification:

[Reservation:] "Pursuant to paragraph 3 of Article 17 of the Convention on the Physical Protection of Nuclear Materials, as amended, the Islamic Republic of Pakistan reiterates that it does not consider itself bound by either of the dispute settlement procedures provided for in paragraph 2 of Article 17 of the Convention."

[Declarations:] "(1) The Convention does not provide a basis for any action by a State or international organization, which i) is not specifically provided for in the provisions of the Convention, and ii) which impinges upon the sovereign rights and interests of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan;

(2) Nothing in paragraph 4 of Article 2 of the Convention shall be construed as encouraging or condoning the threat or use of force in international relations which shall, in all circumstances, be strictly governed by the principles of international law and the purposes and principles of the Charter of the United Nations;

(3) Nothing in the Convention, and particularly the cooperation or the sharing of information pursuant to Article 5, shall be construed to further or achieve any political purpose;

(4) The term "international humanitarian law" refers to those legal instruments to which the Islamic Republic of Pakistan is already a party to, and nothing in the Convention shall be interpreted as giving a different status to the armed entities and groups other than the armed forces of a State as currently understood and applied in international law and thereby creating new obligations for the Islamic Republic of Pakistan;

(5) The term "armed conflict", as employed in the Convention, does not include law enforcement or counterterrorism operations; internal disturbances and tensions, such as riots, isolated and sporadic acts of violence through any means; and other acts of a similar nature;

(6) It does not consider Article 11 of the Convention to be the legal basis for extradition, with respect of the offences set forth therein, and it shall conduct all extraditions under the Convention in accordance with the provisions of the laws of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan, on the basis of treaties on extradition the Government of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan has entered into, and upon the principle of reciprocity."

Singapore, Republic ofaccepted 22 Oct 2014

Upon acceptance:

[Reservation:] "(1) Pursuant to Article 17, paragraph 3, of the amended Convention, the Republic of Singapore declares that it does not consider itself bound by both of the dispute settlement procedures provided for in Article 17, paragraph 2, of the amended Convention."

[Declarations:] "(1) The Republic of Singapore understands Article 10 of the amended Convention to include the right of competent authorities to decide not to submit any particular case for prosecution before the judicial authorities if the alleged offender is dealt with under national security and preventive detention laws.

(2) The Republic of Singapore understands that the term 'armed conflict' in Article 2, paragraph 4, subparagraph (b), of the amended Convention does not include internal disturbances and tensions, such as riots, isolated and sporadic acts of violence, and other acts of a similar nature.

(3) The Republic of Singapore understands that under Article 2, paragraph 4, subparagraph (b), the amended Convention does not apply to:

(a) the military forces of a state in the exercise of their official duties;

(b) civilians who direct or organise the official activities of military forces of a state; or

(c) civilians acting in support of the official activities of the military forces of a state, if the civilians are under the formal command, control, and responsibility of those forces."

Turkey, Republic ofratified 08 Jul 2015

Upon ratification:

"It is the understanding of the Republic of Turkey that the term international humanitarian law in paragraphs (a) and (b) of article 2(4) of Convention on the Physical Protection of Nuclear Material, refers to the legal instruments to which Turkey is already party. The article should not be interpreted as giving a different status to the armed forces and groups other than the armed forces of a state as currently understood and applied in international law and thereby creating new obligations for Turkey."

United States of Americaratified 31 Jul 2015

Upon ratification:

[Reservation:] "Consistent with Article 17(3) of the Convention on the Physical Protection of Nuclear Material, the United States of America declares that it does not consider itself bound by Article 17(2) of the Convention on the Physical Protection of Nuclear Material with respect to disputes concerning the interpretation or application of the Amendment."

[Understandings:] "(1) The United States of America understands that the term "armed conflict" in Paragraph 5 of the Amendment (Article 2 of the Convention on the Physical Protection of Nuclear Material, as amended) does not include internal disturbances and tensions, such as riots, isolated and sporadic acts of violence, and other acts of a similar nature.

(2) The United States of America understands that the term "international humanitarian law" in Paragraph 5 of the Amendment (Article 2 of the Convention on the Physical Protection of Nuclear Material, as amended) has the same substantive meaning as the law of war.

(3) The United States of America understands that, pursuant to Paragraph 5 of the Amendment (Article 2 of the Convention on the Physical Protection of Nuclear Material, as amended), the Convention on the Physical Protection of Nuclear Material, as amended, will not apply to: a) the military forces of a State, which are the armed forces of a State organized, trained, and equipped under its internal law for the primary purpose of national defense or security, in the exercise of their official duties; b) civilians who direct or organize the official activities of military forces of a State; or c) civilians acting in support of the official activities of the military forces of a State, if the civilians are under the formal command, control, and responsibility of those forces."
