

Ms Mary Alice Hayward

Deputy Director General and Head of the Department of Management, International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA)

Mary Alice Hayward is the Deputy Director General and Head of the Department of Management at the IAEA. In this role, she oversees the delivery of a wide range of financial, human resources, management, administrative, information technology, and general services that enable the IAEA to successfully deliver its scientific and technical programmes. DDG Hayward has held this position since January 2017. From 2009 to 2016, she held the position of Vice President Strategy, Government Affairs and Advocacy for the former AREVA Inc., a subsidiary of AREVA SA (now Orano & Framatome). Prior to this, she served in the U.S. Government for over 15 years in the areas of nuclear non-proliferation and nuclear energy. She served as Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary for Nuclear Non-proliferation Policy and Negotiations at the U.S. Department of State, and on the National Security Council at the White House as Director for Counter Proliferation Strategy. DDG Hayward holds a Master's degree in Political Science from the University of Texas at Austin, and a Bachelor's degree in Anthropology and Foreign Languages from the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor. She also holds a Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Department of Nuclear Sciences and Engineering and National Academy for Nuclear Training Reactor Technology Certificate.

#Atoms4Life