

Soma Somanesan

Senior Principal Radiation Physicist, Department of Nuclear Medicine and PET, Singapore General Hospital, Singapore

Dr Somanesan has 30 years of experience in Medical Physics, Nuclear Medicine and Molecular Imaging at the Singapore General Hospital. His secondary appointments are Hospital Radiation Safety Officer and Operations & QA Manager, Cyclotron Facility of the Positron Tracers Pte Ltd besides being the chief, Radiation Response Team at Singapore Hospital.

Dr Somanesan has extensive experience in education and in providing training to both local and international nuclear medicine professionals. He also chairs several committees for radiation safety, quality management and medical physics both within Singapore and for the IAEA. He is an active visiting lecturer and has been an expert in nuclear medicine, quality management & medical physics for the IAEA for the past 20 years.