

Rodolfo Zamian Danilow

General Coordinator, Energy Information and Studies, Secretariat of Energy Planning and Development, Ministry of Mines and Energy, Brazil

Mr Rodolfo Zamian Danilow is currently serving as General Coordinator of Energy Information and Studies at the Secretariat of Energy Planning and Development at the Ministry of Mines and Energy in Brazil. He coordinates the elaboration of the National Energy Plan and the Decennial Energy Expansion Plan, which are Brazil's strategic instruments for long- and medium-term planning.

He has ten years of experience in the power and natural gas sectors, focused on energy planning, policymaking, regulation and market design.