

The Convention on the Physical Protection of Nuclear Material (CPPNM) and its Amendment

Physical Protection

Nuclear material in international transport

in addition

Nuclear facilities, and nuclear material in domestic use, storage and transport

Physical protection regime (e.g. establishment of a legislative and regulatory framework, competent authority)

Offences

Intentional unauthorised acts involving nuclear material
Threat to use nuclear material to cause harm
Theft or robbery of nuclear material
Ancillary offences (attempt to commit a listed offence and participation therein)

in addition

Smuggling of nuclear material
Sabotage of nuclear facilities
Coverage of “substantial damage to the environment”
New ancillary offences (organisation or direction of others to commit a listed offence)

International Cooperation

Cooperation and assistance in connection with criminal proceedings and physical protection systems
Information exchange to protect or recover unlawfully taken material

in addition

Expanded cooperation, assistance and information sharing in case of sabotage

C
P P N
M

A M
E N
D
M
E
N
T