The percentages in the outermost ring reflect the country's share of the global inventory.

For each system the percentages correlate with the particular country's inventory in that system.

Displayed values have been rounded and are based on the 2019 reports of the contracting parties for the Joint Convention on the Safety of Spent Fuel Management and the Safety of Radioactive Waste Management as well as other publicly available sources.

* includes Taiwan, China