

Raúl Doria

Head of the National Cancer Institute, Paraguay

Raúl Doria was appointed General Director of the Paraguay Instituto Nacional del Cáncer (INCAN) in August 2023. In this function he is responsible for implementing “ley 6266” which is the country’s national cancer legislation; maintaining the list of basic oncological drug coverage; Cancer protocols and national guidelines; Pronac (prevention and early detection); and managing a network of providers (10 hospitals).

Previously, he was the Medical Director of the Grupo San Roque, a group of four private hospitals (2015-2022) and before that still he was the Director of the Mary Bird Cancer Center (2000-2014).

Mr Doria graduated as medical doctor in 1986 (@ una) and from the Yale Medical Oncology-Hematology Fellowship Program in 1995.