

Parth Bahuguna

Senior Director, Clinton Health Access Initiative

Parth Bahuguna has over 15 years on global health experience, he is currently the Sr. Director for Clinton Health Access Initiative's (CHAI) global cancer access portfolio. As part of his current role Parth is particularly responsible for incubating and operationalising strategic initiatives focused on improving access to and quality cancer care in low- and middle-income countries (LMICs). Over the past 12 years, Parth has held several positions at CHAI including managing the delivery major health programs in India and negotiating access deals to lower prices of critical health commodities through CHAI's market shaping initiative.

Before joining the global health in space, Parth was a management consultant and worked extensively in emerging markets primarily on projects pertaining to market entry and process transformation strategies for fortune 500 companies such as American Express, Banner Health and Mattel Toys.

Parth holds a B. Tech degree from Delhi University and an MBA from the Arizona State University (ASU).