

Ms. Huyam Ahmed Mohammed Elamin Salih

Director, Interafrican Bureau for Animal Resources, African Union

Ms. Huyam Salih holds a PhD in Veterinary Epidemiology, and master's degree in Tropical Animal Health. Dr. Salih has worked in different positions that aims to maintain the animal and One Health status, ensure compliance with international sanitary and phyto-sanitary (SPS) measures, and expand livestock value chains linking small holder producers. Dr. Salih has 20 years of extensive and diversified experience in managing, planning, and leading for livestock development using animal health interventions, disease risk assessment and prevention in Livestock value chains at national and global levels.