

Ms. Paloma Ellitson

General Manager for Testing and Inspection, Namibia Standards Institution, Namibia

Ms. Paloma Ellitson is the General Manager of the Department Testing and Inspection in the Namibian Standards Institution, the national standards body of Namibia. She is a trained Microbiologist with more than 20 years' experience working within the laboratory food safety environment of which 15 years has been at Management level as head of the fisheries inspectorate and the food safety compliance laboratory in Namibia. Ms Ellitson holds master's degree in Business and an honours degree in Microbiology.