

Ms. Sonya Sammut

National Ambassador for Organic and Sustainable Food, Ministry for Agriculture, Fisheries, and Animal Rights, Malta

As Malta's Ambassador for Organic and Sustainable Food, Ms. Sammut promotes organic farming, food, and sustainability in food systems, by working in partnership with entities and stakeholders. Locally, she coordinates the implementation of the first national Organic Action Plan. In her role as the Director for Food Systems, she is focused on fostering sustainability and resilience through policies, programmes, and projects. Ms. Sammut lectures topics in agrifood marketing, entrepreneurship, and tourism at the University of Malta, and supervise selected dissertations in these areas.