

The General Conference elected the following 18 Members to the Board of Governors to hold office until the end of the nineteenth regular session in 1975:

Chile [1], Costa Rica and Peru	for Latin America;
Denmark [1], Ireland [1], Sweden and Switzerland	for Western Europe;
Bulgaria, the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic [1] and Hungary	for Eastern Europe;
Algeria [1], Gabon, Ghana [1] and Sudan	for Africa;
Pakistan	for the Middle East and South Asia;
the Republic of Korea	for the Far East
Philippines	for the Middle East and South Asia, South East Asia and the Pacific, or the Far East; and
Lebanon [1]	for Africa, the Middle East and South Asia, or South East Asia and the Pacific.

[1] In relation to the election of this Member for two years, attention is invited to the statement made by the President of the Conference which is summarized in document GC(XVII)/OR.167, para. 19.

24 September 1973
Agenda item 19
GC(XVII)/OR.167, paras 1 - 17