PROVISIONAL AGENDA

Supplementary note by the Director General

1. In connection with the provisional agenda for the twentieth regular session of the General Conference[1] and in the light of information received subsequent to its issue the Director General hereby notifies all Members of the Agency that a representative of the host country Brazil will give an address of welcome to the Conference at the opening of the session at 3 p. m. on 21 September 1976.
2. The Director General also takes this opportunity to inform Members that the proceedings will include a statement to the Conference by a representative of the Secretary-General of the United Nations.
3. After the address referred to in paragraph 1 the plenary meeting on 21 September will proceed to the election of officers and appointment of the General Committee. This will be followed by statements to the Conference by the Director General and by the representative of the Secretary-General of the United Nations. The plenary meeting will then adjourn in order to allow the General Committee to meet, in accordance with Rule 42 of the Rules of Procedure of the General Conference, to formulate, inter alia, its recommendations to the Conference regarding all the remaining items listed in GC(XX)/562 and their allocation, where appropriate, to committees.
