- [a] The base rate for the Russian Federation is that approved by the General Assembly of the United Nations for the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics for 1992 and in accordance with the Agency's assessment principles is applied to the Russian Federation for 1993. This rate does not prejudice any arrangements that may be concluded between successor states of the former Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.
- [b] The base rate for Yugoslavia is that approved by the General Assembly of the United Nations for 1992 in accordance with the Agency's assessment principles. The inclusion of Yugoslavia does not affect the question of the membership of Yugoslavia.
- [c] Estonia became a Member of the Agency on 31 January 1992. Since the United Nations General Assembly has not yet fixed a rate for Estonia, its Agency rate of assessment is derived from the rate proposed by the United Nations Committee on Contributions.
