

GC(XXXVIII)/DEC/4

ELECTION OF ADDITIONAL MEMBERS OF THE GENERAL
COMMITTEE^[*]

The General Conference elected the delegates of Canada, the Czech Republic, Mexico, Namibia and Qatar as additional members of the General Committee, to hold office until the close of the thirty-eighth regular session.

19 September 1994

Agenda item 1

GC(XXXVIII)/OR.1, paras 12 and 13, 118 and 119

^[*] As a result of the decisions taken under GC(XXXVIII)/DEC/1, 2, 3 and 4, the General Committee appointed for the thirty-eighth (1994) regular session was composed as follows:

Prof. Alec Jean Baer (Switzerland) as President;
The delegates of Austria, Cuba, the Islamic Republic of Iran, Malaysia, the Russian Federation, Tunisia, the United States of America and Viet Nam as Vice-Presidents;
Mr. Jörg Hermann Goesele (Germany) as Chairman of the Committee of the Whole; and
The delegates of Canada, the Czech Republic, Mexico, Namibia and Qatar as additional elected members.