General comments

1. The CHAIR said that efforts were under way to address language related to gender in the draft resolutions on “Strengthening of the Agency’s technical cooperation activities” and “Personnel. B. Women in the Secretariat”. He thanked the representative of Pakistan for convening consultations in order to find a solution.
2. The representative of PAKISTAN said that agreement was within reach and that he was confident that the two draft resolutions could be recommended to the Plenary by the Committee at its subsequent meeting.
3. The CHAIR, noting that work was continuing on a number of agenda items, said that he intended to present an interim report to the Plenary at its afternoon session the following day concerning those draft resolutions that the Committee had been able to recommend to that body.

The meeting rose at 7.55 p.m.
